Section Two – About Your Faith Venture

Describe your faith venture: what it does, the need it meets, what your role in it all is, and what you've done so far	Magnify are unlikely to know anything about you and what you are doing, so use this opportunity to paint a picture of the need that you have identified, the vision and dreams you have, the part you play in realising this, and the results that achieving it will have.
What are the key steps you are aiming to take in the next 12 months?	Please be specific and where you can, use SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Reasonable, Timely) goals to describe your steps over the next 12 months.
After the next year, are there any further milestones you are planning towards, and if so when do you estimate these might take place?	You may not know yet, only have a rough idea, or there may be well made plans for your next steps in a year's time. Whatever stage you are at, this is where you can tell Magnify about them.
Any website, or social media presence, please provide details here	Website, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram – please provide these if they are relevant to your application, for example those of any parent organisation connected to your application that you may volunteer for

Section Three – About Finances

What is the amount being requested from Magnify Foundation?	This may be part of or all your costs depending on what you are doing, and the time scale you are applying over.
Every...	Confirm the payment frequency being requested You can request a one-off grant, monthly or an annual payment.
Do you have any other sources of funding (such as grants from other charities)?	If you've applied for, or been successful in obtaining funding from other sources that help towards your overall funding goal, please let us know the amount, and the source of the funding.
